The winner will be selected from all the correct answers picked by the deadline and the prize will have to be picked up at our office. Only one entry per household per issue please.

Weekly Give Away

This week we are giving away an autographed copy of Rob Gonsalves movie review compilation. To enter simply go to The Wanderer web page at www.wanderer.com, click on the Contest Link and enter the contest code RG019. Then answer the following question:

Pumpkin Dive

Halloween fun starts early on Saturday, October 29 when from 9:00 am to 10:00 am when a team of local scuba divers carve scary grins into a batch of pumpkins while underwater at Shell Point. It's the kick-off event to a day full of free Halloween activities happening at the Onset Village Family Day. Tricksters can plan on haunting the town from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm and getting treated to a monstrous amount of spooky good fun presented by the Onset Bay Association. Throughout the day, the village becomes the staging area for creepy stories, creature sitings, crafts, and pumpkin carvings.

A dive team from the Buzzards Bay Dive Center in Onset is planning the underwater pumpkin carving event as a way to get divers in the water and have some fun. There are typically eight or nine divers that participate. Onlookers get a good chance to observe all the preparations that go into making a dive and then can enjoy viewing the finished pumpkins.

"It's a novelty," explained Buzzards Bay Dive Center instructor Cindy Martin. "It's a little more of a challenge. The pumpkins float."

For many divers, the challenge of putting a face on a pumpkin while underwater is unique and a new way of experiencing a dive plus it gives them another way to participate in the season, she added. While carving the

In addition to Shell Point, other public areas of the village will feature Halloween activities. There's pumpkin decorating at 11:00 am at the Lillian Gregerman Bandshell for which Mayflower Bank has donated a slew of pumpkins. And throughout the day, the Onset Bay Movie Company will be serving up free popcorn at the gazebo on the bluff for anyone in costume.

Mattapoisett Plants Evergreen Memorials

By Laura McLean

One woman began her day here, sipping coffee and watching the waves; the other, too, was drawn to the ocean from this spit of land off the village. Memorial tree plantings have given Mattapoisett's idyllic Ned's Point some added greenery, while giving the families a meaningful living symbol of loved ones.

"I can't think of a place on this earth that my Mum found more comforting than the Point," said Nancy Feeney of New Bedford of her late mother Ada E. Prescott. After her mom's death Ms. Feeney set up a fund for a tree memorial.

"I think that this tree planting represents all that is special with Mattapoisett," said Tree Planting Committee Chairman Charles Duponte. "The location could not be more beautiful or more scenic."

The committee, which formed over a year ago with the goal of planting trees in town, relied totally on private donations. The installation of three Halka Locusts at Veterans of Mattapoisett Memorial Park on Ned's

FULLY INSURED - ROBERT S. REICHERT, OWNER

Point represents the group's first planting. The trees were installed in late summer, near a picnicking spot in front of a gazebo. Labor was donated by Mr. Duponte, a local nurseryman.

"These are an especially good choice given the fact that even severe storms seem not to permanently damage the growing habit of the tree," he said, noting that these trees are "late to leaf out and early to drop their leaves. Once fully foliated they add a nice sense of whimsy and dappled shade to the park's space."

Mr. Duponte donated another of the trees in memory of Norma Campbell, a longtime Mattapoisett resident who loved Ned's Point and gardening. Her daughter Marsha Blouin, called it a "wonderful living memorial. It gives my children a tangible reminder of the grandmother they loved. It's there next to the ocean which is what my mother was all about."

Among other recent plantings is a Princeton Elm at Barstow Wharf, next to Town Beach a tribute to late Selectman John DeCosta, for his many years of service to the town. "He was Mr. Mattapoisett," recalled committee member Ruth Bates, remarking that an elm is a wonderful and fitting tribute to him, "mighty and gentle at the same time."

The committee's newest project is to plant a Blue Spruce at Shipyard Park. They hope this will generate interest in giving to the tree memorial fund. "This is a great way to share the spirit of the holidays while memorializing a loved one," said Kenny Pacheco, group treasurer.

The committee is actively searching for appropriate locations for future tree plantings, according to Mr. Dupont. "It would be nice if Mattapoisett residents would contact the tree committee to offer suggestions as to places where they would like to see a tree planted in town," he said.

Contributions and suggestions may be sent to the Mattapoisett Tree Planting Committee, P.O. Box 302, Mattapoisett, MA 02739.

study, the assembled group of library supporters at the poll closing of Mattapoisett's Special Election on Tuesday evening was anything but when Town Clerk Barbara Sullivan read the final unofficial results of the single-question ballot to approve $1.4 million as the town's share of renovations to and expansion of the Mattapoisett Free Public Library.

"Yes: 1,017 ... No: 765," Ms. Sullivan announced, eliciting a round of cheers and applause from the crowd — many drenched after having held signs throughout the day in the pouring rain.

"You guys all deserve it ... you worked really hard," Library Director Judy Wallace shouted out to the many familiar faces of library supporters present.

"I'm so relieved that you cannot believe it," Ms. Wallace said when asked for her immediate reaction. "I can start setting up the temporary (move) which I've been wanting to do for a year."

Now that the Mattapoisett Free Public Library expansion and renovation project has been given the green light, Ms. Wallace said she hopes to facilitate the temporary move into Center School sometime this winter, if that's still agreeable to the ORR School District.

"I'm really thrilled because that grant is really near and dear to my heart," Ms. Wallace said. "We have almost $1 million in grant money sitting in the bank."

Despite the day-long inclement weather, an impressive 1,784 of Mattapoisett's 4,480 registered voters, or 39 percent, cast ballots in the Tuesday, October 25 Special Election at Old Hammondtown School.

Mattapoisett Special Town Meeting

October 24, 2005

By Kenneth J. Souza

A Special Town Meeting for the Town of Mattapoisett was convened in the auditorium of Old Rochester Regional High School at 7:10 pm by Town Moderator Jack Eklund having noted the presence of a quorum of some 276 voters.

After a Salute to the Flag and a moment of silence for departed Town Meeting members, Mr. Eklund introduced the town officials present and also went over some basic Town Meeting procedures. He also entertained and accepted a motion to waive the reading of the articles on the warrant and agreed to refer to them only by number and title.

Under a two-part ARTICLE 1, voters were first asked to amend the FY 2006 Budget as approved by Town Meeting on May 9, 2005, by transferring the sum of $45,900 to cover fuel for the Highway Department ($8,000 gasoline; $2,100 diesel); fuel for the Police Department ($17,500 gasoline; $3,000 natural gas; $2,500 diesel); fuel for the Ambulance ($2,500 diesel); fuel for the Fire Department ($3,300 gasoline / diesel; $2,000 fuel oil); gasoline for the Board of Health ($3,000); gasoline for the Natural Resources Department ($1,500); and natural gas for the Town Hall ($3,000).

waiting at the gas pumps," said Selectman Steve Lombard. "We received a good (fuel) bid back and we're able to stay within our budget and meet our energy needs for the ensuing wintertime."

Paul Kelly questioned why the Board of Health (BOH), with only one vehicle, was allocated $3,000 for gasoline while the larger highway (16 vehicles), police (9 vehicles) and fire fleets (7 vehicles) were justifiably given larger allotments. As such, he moved to reduce the BOH amount to $500, which passed unanimously. With that, the amended first portion of Article 1 passed unanimously.

Under the second part of ARTICLE 1, voters were asked to reduce the amount of appropriated interest

Dental Disease

My dog's breath is pretty bad. Is there something that I can feed him to make it smell better?

Elevate your dog's upper lip and look at his molars. They should be white and shiny. If they look brown near the gums you should schedule an appointment with your veterinarian to discuss a dental cleaning. Dirty teeth and infected gums that usually come with them often cause a foul odor, pain and the potential for tooth loss. Every time your dog chews he may experience a bacterial shower into his blood stream which can affect his heart valves, kidneys and other organs. Have the teeth cleaned and discuss ways to prevent dental disease in the future.

"Very seldom do we get some good news," Selectman Lombard said. "Because we received money from the state for our school borrowing, we were able to ... reduce the amount placed on real estate property taxes this year."

The second part of Article 1 carried unanimously, 276 to 0.

Under ARTICLE 2, voters unanimously approved a transfer of $3,000 from the Waterfront Retained Earnings Waterways Fund to cover part-time personnel for the Harbormaster's Department.

Under ARTICLE 3, voters were asked to transfer $4,000 from Waterfront Retained Earnings to defray the expense of relocated moorings in Mattapoisett Harbor as part of the ongoing Harbor Regridding Project. The article carried unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 4, voters were asked to transfer $12,000 from the Assessors Salary line item into their Professional Services line item to cover the 2006 revaluation.

"This article is to move the consultant fees from the board's wages to the professional services line item," explained Assessor Rebecca McCullough. "This used to pay (Assessor Michael O'Brien) who is no longer on the board."

Article 4 passed unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 5, voters were asked to transfer $27,000 from the Assessors Overlay account to fund computer and software upgrades for the Assessors Office.

"The current system was offered several years ago by the state ... which makes us have to do double work in many cases," Ms. McCullough said. "Only 30 towns in Massachusetts currently still use the state system."

Article 5 passed unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 6, voters were asked to appropriate $34,000 to purchase and equip a new vehicle for the Water Department.

"We have tried for over a year to get a new vehicle," said Water/Sewer Superintendent William 'Nick' Nicholson. "We're looking to purchase and equip a new one-ton utility vehicle ... with a detachable plow. We have a growing department and we need it to perform our duties."

Article 6 passed via majority vote, 278 to 2.

Under ARTICLE 7, voters were asked to appropriate $26,281.22 to fund an increase in hours and benefits for the Public Health Nurse for the town, retroactive to July 1, 2005.

"This will increase the hours of (the Public Health Nurse) to 30 hours a week," said Board of Health Chairman Dan Lee. "Presently our nurse is working 24 hours or more per week. She was hired for under 20 hours a week, but with the increased visibility of moving to Center School ... (her duties) have increased."

Article 7 passed via majority vote, 275 to 5.

Under ARTICLE 8, voters were asked to allocated $45,000 to fund renovations to the Mattapoisett Town Hall and reconfigure the Financial Offices within.

"If you've been in Town Hall, you can see that it's not in the best of condition," Selectman Lombard said. "It really needs substantial repairs — especially the rug on the first floor. We've hoping to redo our floors and consolidate the financial offices within (the back) of the building."

Citing that this project should fall under the purview of the newly-appointed Capital Needs Committee, resident Daniel Goodman moved to indefinitely postpone the article, which failed, 167 to 96. With that, the original Article 8 passed via majority vote, 200 to 25.

priate $12,000 to repair the exterior of the Mattapoisett Police Station.

"The repairs involve the gutters, some of the ... boards at the top of the building, and the gutters and downspouts (which) are no longer connected to the building," Police Chief Mary Lyons said. "We don't have commercial grade gutters. We want to have those boards replaced and covered with aluminum."

Article 9 carried unanimously.

ARTICLE 10, which would have asked voters to allocate $38,000 to install two traffic signals on Route 6 for Old Hammondtown School, was withdrawn from consideration.

"(The project) cannot qualify for Chapter 90 state reimbursement because the school is not physically located on Route 6," Selectman Andrews explained, adding that they are pursuing another avenue to get the traffic lights installed.

Under ARTICLE 11, voters were asked to allocate $7,450 to purchase the VADAR Systems Betterments Management software program.

"This system is a platform within the current VADAR financial system we have to help us manage the (sewer) betterment system better than we have been," Selectman Lombard said.

Article 11 carried unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 12, voters unanimously approved payment of $90.12 to cover the outstanding balance for the Eel Pond engineering study.

The key draw for the evening was clearly Article 13, which asked voters to approve $1.4 million — amended from $1.5 million on Town Meeting floor due to a “challenge from an anonymous donor,” according to Library Trustee Robert Atkinson — for a Proposition 2-1/2 Debt Exclusion for renovations to and expansion of the Mattapoisett Free Public Library.

“Following the defeat of the library project at the polls last June, the decision was to come back to Town Meeting in October for two reasons,” explained Library Trustee Seth Mendell. “First, with the failure of the vote ... the town was still faced with a 100-year-old building that wasn’t (handicap-accessible). Second, we had 60 percent of the money in hand — we had $3.1 million in the bank — half from state grant, half raised privately.”

Mr. Mendell said the library supporters managed to reduce the cost of the project by $300,000. “We made cuts that hurt,” he said, “and we did some homework that we didn’t do the first time. The homework I’m talking about is we sat down with an architect, with an engineer, and with individuals in the building trade.”

Mr. Mendell argued that just to make the current library compliant with the federal Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), it would cost an estimated $1 million. “We’re asking you to vote for $1.4 million and that will give us a new building,” he said. “To do what I just outlined will cost $1 million ... you’re looking at 7 cents a day to have a new building, handicap-accessible, with all deferred maintenance taken care of. On the other hand, for 5 cents a day, you'd have a building that is handicap accessible, but nothing else."

Resident George Randall, wearing a shirt reading What part of no don't you understand?, warned that this article was "shameful, disgraceful and very disrespectful" to his generation of "depression-era baby boomers" who have grown up and grown old in Mattapoisett.

"Article 13 is asking (us) to vote 'yes' to an agreement that will (cost us) $26 and change for the rest of (our) lives," Mr. Randall said. "At no time in the history of Mattapoisett has a generation of people been treated so poorly. It's nice to be important, but it's more important to be nice."

"In a way I think Mr. Randall answered his own statements by saying how the population of this town has grown," countered resident Lois Murray. "What was good for 2,000 people several years ago really isn't enough for 6,000 today. I think those people who use the library really see the need."

Library support Jim Dildine warned that if the library is not made ADA-compliant, a single complaint filed could force the town's hand.

"Any person who feels they have been denied appropriate access to a public building can fill out a complaint form and this is sent to the United States Department of Justice and they must follow-up on the complaint," he said. "They will make inquiries to the town and attempt to negotiate solutions. If not, they can file with district court to force compliance."

When asked if the library's operating budget took into account the potential for increased staffing and utility needs, Mr. Atkinson explained: "We have looked at the operating costs (for the library), which are primarily gas, electricity, and personnel. The existing energy cost is around $7,000 to $8,000 a year. The projected costs are around $24,000 a year, which is what you'd expect for a new building about three times the size. Frankly, we do expect increases."

After a motion to "move the question" passed via majority, 279 to 1, and a second motion to vote via checklist (paper ballot) failed to garner the 25 needed votes, Article 13 passed via majority vote, 282 to 32.

Then, library supporter Robert Cattley, who curiously voted against the original article, moved to reconsider Article 13, which was soundly defeated, 310 to 13. The reason for this motion, according to Jim Dildine, was to ensure that the article could not be reconsidered later while Town Meeting remained in session. Rules for Town Meeting allow only "one bite at the apple," to quote Town Moderator Jack Eklund, in terms of motions to reconsider select articles. So even if that one motion is defeated, the article in question cannot be revisited a third time within the same Town Meeting proceeding.

In other matters, Town Meeting voters also:

Town Meeting voters agreed to table several road acceptance requests on the warrant pending further review of the process for said acceptances; among them: Lady Slipper Trail (ARTICLE 11); Boxberry Lane (ARTICLE 12); Mayflower Lane (ARTICLE 13); and Thistle Lane (ARTICLE 15).

Under ARTICLE 14, voters approved the acquisition/gift of open space in the Bogview Estates subdivision from Stephen Striar to the Town of Rochester.

The second half of the warrant dealt mostly with Zoning By-Law changes and amendments. To this end, Town Meeting voters approved:

- An Orderly Development section (Section G) to the Zoning By-Laws, which essentially limits the total number of Building Permits issued within the town to no more than 48 per year (ARTICLE 16);

- Various amendments to the Zoning By-Laws to clean up language and make clarifications (ARTICLES 17, 18, 19, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29); and

- Adoption of a non-criminal disposition procedure for the violation of all town by-laws and regulations, setting fines as follows: $50 for first offense; $150 for the second offense; and $300 for the third offense. ### ORR Homecoming Sweep

Homecoming proved to be an exciting week for Old Rochester Regional High School as each team polished off a week of success.

The Golf Team had a model performance at the Regional Tournament held at the New Bedford Whale, where the team placed second to Seekonk's team. The team continued the week at the SCC Championships, where they came out on top. Once again, senior Tom Mills lead for ORR shooting a 79, with junior Greg Maynard and senior co-captain Zach Bacon coming up strong with 80s.

The Girls Soccer Team had a 3-0 week, bringing their record up to an impressive 12-0-2. Their victories over Wareham, Martha's Vineyard, and Case only locked the team's position as a powerhouse in the SCC. ## ATTENTION DRIVERS

If you are involved in a collision you have the right to have your investment, your vehicle, repaired at a shop of your choice. Your insurance company may suggest a list of repair shops. Do not be persuaded by this list, it is not a guarantee of quality of services, nor does it limit your options. You want a shop who will work for you and with you to put your vehicle back to pre-accident condition. COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. is a licensed, bonded, registered repair shop with the state of Massachusetts. We work with all insurance companies to expedite your repairs. The important thing to remember is we repair the vehicle for you, our customers, not the insurance companies. So remember, if the need arises, contact COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. to get back on the road.

Rochester's top runners who hope to bring home success for the Bulldogs.

The Girls Volleyball Team went 3-0 this past week, earning a spot in the State Tournament. Senior captain Katherine Lagreze earned The Standard-Times Player of the Week award. Leading the way for the team, Lagreze and the other players managed to steal 3-0 victories over Dighton-Rehoboth, Wareham, and Greater New Bedford Voke last week. With only one game left in the regular season, the girls are looking ahead to post season play beginning on November 2.

The Girls Field Hockey Team continues to perform at a top level, coming out 2-0 this past week. The girls served the Bourne team with an 8-0 loss last Wednesday. Senior Colleen Oakes was excited about the win: "I think we made good passes and good set ups for goals in the Bourne game," she said. The girls look forward to the tournament, where they will face competitive play.

Polishing off the week-long sweep for Old Rochester was the mighty Bulldog Football Team. The exciting Homecoming Game win over Seekonk put the boys at a 3-1 record in the SCC and 4-3 overall. Davis Englund and Dean Basset played well for ORR. The boys will face Greater New Bedford Voke at Voke this Friday.

To the Editor:

My name is Katie Holden. On October 2 I held the Second Annual Dog Walk in Rochester. I thought of this one day when I finished a book I was reading. The book was about an animal walk to raise money for a pony who needed an operation. So, I decided to have my own walk but just with dogs! This year we had Lloyd's Market sponsor us! Jay gave us all the hot dogs and chips for free! We had 100 people, 35 dogs, and we raised $250 for the Noah's Wish Foundation.

I found out about the Noah's Wish Foundation by looking on their website. It had hundreds of pictures of rescued animals that they had saved from Hurricane Katrina. They respond to disasters all over the world to save animals. So this year I decided to donate to them!

I would like to give a huge "thank you" to all who came. I would also like to thank Jay (at Lloyd's Market). Without him, we would have had no food. I would also like to thank the Marchisio family for making 500 copies of the flyers to pass out to the school, the Rochester Land Trust for advertising the walk, Kari Rossi for donating the drinks, and Kristen Saunders and Pat Marshal for assisting with the serving and raffle. I hope to see everyone again next year.

Laramie Project at ORR

The Old Rochester Regional High School Drama Club's fall production will be the thought-provoking, award-winning The Laramie Project by Moises Kaufman. This brilliant gem of theatre explores the loss of innocence and the psyche of the people of Laramie, Wyoming following a true hate crime. The crime itself was perpetrated on a 21-year-"young" student of the University of Wyoming.

The cast of 23 actors (freshmen through seniors) each play between three and four characters. The director, who is also creating the set and supervising lighting, is Paul Sardinha, who has directed 28 plays at ORR. The Laramie Project marks his 110th production overall. Barbara Meehan is the assistant director and Helen Blake is in charge of costumes.

According to director Sardinha, this production has become one of the "hottest" learning tools for high schools to perform. He says The Laramie Project leads to thoughtful discussion about the crimes of hate which permeate and undermine the societies in which we live.

"At the conclusion of the play — provided we give ourselves permission to learn and improve our lives — we are left with a tremendous sense of hope for the future," Sardinha said.

ORR's production of The Laramie Project will be performed Thursday through Saturday, November 17, 18, surprised at "Norway's virtually unrecognized importance in the war." Mr. Fuller makes his case "that Hitler's decision to invade Norway cost Germany the war and changed the course of history."

Come discuss questions rarely addressed by historians: Did the invasion ultimately cost Hitler the war? Did one Norwegian colonel, by disobeying orders, save civilization? Did control of Norway's "heavy water" give Germany a false sense of security that was a significant factor in its failure to develop an atomic bomb?

Your Questions on Dental Implants

Q I have had dentures for several years and have lost a lot of jawbone. My lower dentures are very loose and move when I speak or eat. I need help. Is there still hope for me?

A In most cases and with all the new options available in today's field of dental implantology, some form of treatment can be done to help your situation. We encourage people to get help as soon as possible, especially if they are already having problems. These problems include: excessive use of dental adhesives, being able to chew only soft foods, the inability to taste your food, constant mouth sores, unhappiness with the appearance of your teeth or biting position (your nose and chin appear closer together and give your face a "caved in" appearance), or you experience embarrassment while speaking. For these situations, you'll have more choices the sooner these problems are addressed. If you have any or all of the above symptoms, dental implants may be the answer for you.

There are 30 million people in the United States with no teeth and 29% of these people chew only soft foods. More importantly, "People without teeth, or diseased teeth and gums, have a life expectancy of 9.8 years less than those who have a healthy oral environment." (Harvard Research Symposium)

MOVIE REVIEW

Game Over

By Rob Gonsalves
<http://robsreviews.cjb.net>

Doom. Starring The Rock and Karl Urban. Directed by Andrzej Bartkowiak. Running time: 100 minutes. MPAA rating: R.

A truly bold movie adaptation of the first-person-shooter videogame Doom would simply be an hour and a half of ... well ... first-person shooting. The camera would take the point of view of an anonymous soldier as he blasts his way through various mutants, zombies, and other unfriendly creatures in the catacombs of Mars. There is actually an extended sequence like that in the movie, tipping its hat to its popular source. It's pretty clever and has a kind of trigger-finger wit. Otherwise, Doom the movie is likely to thrill only those who have been yearning for a Doom movie. Most others will have seen it all before, in superior action-horror films (Aliens, Predator) and not-so-superior ones (Resident Evil).

Scientists on Mars have been diddling around with a 24th chromosome that makes humans superstrong and almost indestructible. The process, though, also functions as a sort of moral litmus test: If you're predisposed to violence or psychosis, it'll make you a monster. So the result is a bunch of dead scientists, and a crew of Hollywood-issue Marines are shipped off to Mars to investigate. Character subtlety is out of the question: the only Marine with a full name is John Grimm (Karl Urban), which suits his general mood. The other guys go by names like Goat, Duke, Destroyer, and Sarge (The Rock).

Helmed by Andrzej Bartkowiak, a decent cinematographer (Thirteen Days, The Devil's Advocate) turned schlock director (Cradle 2 the Grave, Romeo Must Die), the movie streaks by in unscannable short bursts of gunfire. Doom is plenty bloody and violent, though the hyperactive editors (four are credited) make sure you don't see much of the carnage, in effect doing the MPAA's censorious work for it. The videogame was (notoriously) much more brutal; the movie is suggestively brutal, offering quick glimpses of torn flesh, spattered blood. In one memorable bit, a tube of a character's watery brain matter is applied to a monster's severed tongue to see if there's a reaction. That sentence has possibly never been typed before, and I suppose I have Doom to thank for it.

The Rock continues to pursue his apparent dream of being a stoic and colorless action hero, without a trace of the humor he's shown in interviews, in supporting roles, or even in his old wrestling persona. His one tender moment is played opposite an enormous gun, taking trash-movie autoeroticism about as far as it can go. (Regardless, we see it fired only twice.) Usually a director would try to cast eccentrics around a rock like The Rock, but here we only get Karl Urban, here used for his imposing physique and little else. Urban emerges as the film's closest thing to a hero, but he's still not very close, playing a hard-boiled soldier who goes on the mission mainly to rescue his scientist sister (Rosamund Pike, who couldn't act worth a damn in Die Another Day and still can't). Only Richard Brake, as the sleazy and duplicitous grunt Portman, gives a performance of any interest, and even that's on the level of caricature.

And what exactly did I expect from a movie based on a shoot-'em-up videogame? Well, there's no rule that videogame movies have to be idiotic; one hears interesting things about Silent Hill, directed by Christophe Gans (Brotherhood of the Wolf) and written by Roger Avary (The Rules of Attraction). And there's no rule that action-horror flicks need be dumb: James Cameron's Aliens remains the gold standard in a debased subgenre. Doom, however, proceeds as though those were inviolable rules. And except for a moment involving a monkey in an airshaft the script is as humorless as The Rock's character. Some time ago there was a famous Internet clip of the online game World of Warcraft, in which a player loudly proclaiming himself "Leroy Jenkins" ran heedlessly into a hazardous level and (hilariously) got everyone else killed. Doom could've used a Leroy Jenkins.

Recently, fraudulent phone calls are being made to local Hampshire county residents. The company, Advantage America, has guised themselves as a department of the Veterans Affairs, and are asking for bank account numbers to those who "qualify" for grants issued by the federal government.

Please, with regard to you and your finances, do not give out any information to anyone unless you are contacted directly from the Veterans Affairs office, either by phone or mail that will have the VA letterhead. ## INNER VIEWS

Marion's Ghost Story

By Kenneth J. Souza
news@wanderer.com

I guess there's something inherently foreboding and creepy about the tell-tale lighthouses that dot the landscape along the east coast from Maine to Florida. In particular, the lighthouses around New England seem to stand like silent tombstones jutting up from the rocky ledges and beaches, guiding contemporary sailors but also beckoning to those maritime memories from the past. Even in a modern-day ghost story like The Fog — and for my money, I'll stick with director John Carpenter's 1980 original and not the rehashed remake now playing in theaters — a lighthouse becomes a major setpiece which attracts the long-lost spirits from the past, effectively supplanting the brooding castle where Universal's monsters romped in their heyday.

So it came as no surprise to me that author Sheryl Monks (top right) has gathered some of the more compelling "ghost stories" associated with existing lighthouses for her Ghostly Lighthouses from Maine to Florida (John F. Blair Publishing, $12.95) book. Prominent among the fifteen tales contained within the 145-page trade paperback is a chapter titled "The Curse of the Pirate Lightkeeper," which conveys the little-known story surrounding Marion's own Bird Island Light.

According to legend, the first keeper of the Bird Island Light in 1819 was a man named William Moore, who was banished to the remote two-acre island where the lighthouse sits after being found guilty of piracy. He lived on Bird Island with his wife and supplies were ferried over from Sippican Village on a regular basis — including tobacco and alcohol, on which his wife seemed to thrive. The crotchety old salt thought these habits unbecoming to a woman and after she became sick with tuberculosis in 1832 he withdrew to the sheds of the island, leaving her to die.

Apparently the woman's will to live was strong, however, and she bounced back only to enrage him all the more. Frustrated that her wicked ways did not result in her demise, he finally shot her and informed the villagers that she had, in fact, died from consumption.

But many of those living in Marion (then Sippican) who knew Mrs. Moore and her husband's abusive tendencies suspected foul play, but by the time they reported the suspicious death to the sheriff, Mrs. Moore had been buried and William Moore vanished, never to return.

About 50 years later when the original keeper's house was torn down in 1890, a gun was found stashed with a bag of tobacco and a letter from Moore, calling for a curse upon the villagers who supplied his wife with the vice that ultimately killed her. Mr. Moore's "curse" is said to have caused subsequent tragedies, including the death of light keeper Charles Clark Jr., who shot himself while cleaning his gun in 1890; the death of keeper Peter Murray's eleven-month-old son from pneumonia; and the "Great Hurricane of 1938" which destroyed everything on Bird Island save for the stone lighthouse structure itself.

There are even some who claim to have seen Mrs. Moore's ghost roam the remote Marion island to this day. But I'll leave that for you to decide for yourself.

Whaling Museum Concert

The Music Through Time Concert Series is proud to present popular singer-songwriter Bob Franke at 8:00 pm on Friday, November 4, in the beautiful amphitheater of the New Bedford Whaling Museum, 18 Johnny Cake Hill. Sovereign Bank is the sponsor of this concert.

Bob Franke is at the peak of his considerable craft; brimming with the wise and spiritually generous songs for which he is best known, along with powerful country blues, some wrenchingly convincing topical songs and sugared with the hilarious. His are the kind of songs that really do have the power to change the world by being taken into the lives of people. Bob's songs are considered classics, fueled by his deep faith and the real-life lessons taught him by his 30-odd years of playing everywhere from concert halls to street corners.

Bob has appeared in concert at coffeehouses, colleges, festivals, bars, streets, homes and churches in 33 states, four Canadian provinces and England. His concerts have appeared in lists of the top five musical events of the year chosen by critics in the Boston and San Francisco Bay areas. Among Bob's live radio credits are A Prairie Home Companion, A Mountain Stage, Our Front Porch, Sandy Bradley's Potluck, Folk Scene, West Coast Weekend, and Bound for Glory.

Many others including Peter, Paul and Mary; David Wilcox; John McCutcheon; Sally Rogers; Lui Collins; Garnet Rogers; and June Tabor have recorded Bob Franke's songs. Seasoned veterans and novices alike are drawn to the complex, warm-hearted spirituality and captivatingly clear-cut melodies of Franke's songs. Tom Paxton said this of Bob: "It's his integrity. I always think of Bob as if Emerson and Thoreau had picked up acoustic guitars and gotten into songwriting. There's touches of Mark Twain and Buddy Holly in there, too."

When he isn't writing or touring, Bob leads songwriting workshops at music festivals and music camps, workshops described by the participants as "transcendent." Bob has recorded a number of albums with much well deserved critical acclaim. Two of his songs appear in the Top 10 of a WERS-FM poll of all-time favorite folk songs. His latest album, The Other Evening In Chicago, a live radio concert recorded in Chicago, contains most of the songs that people tend to request of Bob at shows, as well as five previously unrecorded songs.

Don't miss an evening with Bob Franke. Tickets are $13 for Museum members, $18 for all others. This

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You might be growing impatient with a situation that seems to resist efforts to resolve it. But staying with it raises the odds that you'll find a way to a successful resolution.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Travel and kinship are strong in the Bovine's aspect this week. This would be a good time to combine the two and take a trip to see family members for a pre-holiday get-together.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A colleague could make a request you're not comfortable with. If so, say so. Better to disappoint someone by sticking with your principles than disappoint yourself if you don't.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) The Moon Child's ability to adapt to life's ebbs and flows helps you deal with the changes that you might confront at work or at home, or both. Things settle down by the week's end.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) It's a good week for Leos and Leonas to get some long-outstanding business matters resolved. Then go ahead and plan a fun-filled family getaway weekend with the mate and the cubs.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A possible workplace change seems promising. If you decide to look into it, try not to form an opinion on just a small part of the picture: Wait for the full image to develop.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A newcomer helps keep things moving. There might be some bumpy moments along the way, but at least you're heading in the right direction. You win praise for your choices.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You could be pleasantly surprised by how a decision about one thing opens up an unexpected new option. Also, assistance on a project could come from a surprising source.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) With more information to work with, you might now be able to start the process that could lead to a major change. Reserve the weekend for family and friends.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) This could be a good time to begin gathering information that will help you turn that long-held idea into something substantive. A personal matter might need extra attention.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) That new challenge might carry some surprises. But you should be able to handle them using what you already know. That new supporter should be there to lend assistance.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Someone might be trying to disguise his or her true motives. But the perceptive and perspicacious Pisces should have little or no problem finding the truth in all that foggy rhetoric.

BORN THIS WEEK: You can always rely on your people skills to help you find solutions to problems others often give up on.

Local Actors in Play

A quintet of area actors will perform David Prideaux's comedy / drama Mixed Couples in a Your Theatre, Inc. production directed by Robin Richard of New Bedford.

The actors are Patty Carreau-Souza and Evan Rousseau, both of New Bedford; Susan Fournier of Dartmouth, Lee J. Fortier of Fairhaven, and Robert Duquette of Somerset.

Set in 1927, the play centers on two couples who wait at an airfield for the fog to lift so they can fly to Washington.

One couple lives in suburban bliss. He is a staid English professor played by Mr. Duquette. She, performed by Mrs. Fournier, is a housewife and at-home mother.

The other couple are Park Avenue types. He, played by Mr. Fortier, is a rich, hard-driving businessman dealing in real estate and stock trading. She, played by Mrs. Carreau-Souza, is (after many years) still an aspiring actress.

Mr. Rousseau will play the pilot of their plane.

The couples' by-chance meeting involves an irony that makes their veneers crumble, as their conversation turns funnier and it becomes clear neither couple gained

LEGAL NOTICE

OLD COLONY

REGIONAL VOCATIONAL TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT

Superintendent David J. Ferreira of the Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School District recently was informed by the Commissioner of Education of an upcoming Department of Education Coordinated Program Review visit. The Department's onsite visit will occur during the week of November 28, 2005. Such visits are routinely conducted by the Department to satisfy federal and state education requirements to review periodically specific education programs and services in local school districts throughout the Commonwealth. The Department is conducting the review of several programs during the single visit, in order to be more efficient in the time spent on this mandated activity by both Department and school system staff and also to make strong connections with the programs under Education Reform. Superintendent Ferreira indicates that the Department's Coordinated Program Review process will address the program areas of Special Education, Civil Rights, Career & Technical Education, Title I and English Learner Education and include a review of school district program procedures, a study of individual student records and an onsite visit by a Department of Education Team. The Department Team will conduct interviews of district administrators, teachers and parents, conduct observations of instructional sites and prepare a report for the Superintendent and School Committee.

An Executive Summary and detailed report of findings for each program area will describe the implementation status of each program requirement reviewed by the Department of Education. The findings will note those program standards the implementation of which the team found to be commendable or substantially implements. Where program standards are found not to be fully implemented, the local district (or charter school) must propose to the Department of Education corrective actions to bring those areas into compliance with the respective statutes or regulations. Districts are encouraged to incorporate the corrective action activities into their district and school improvement plans, including the district professional development plan. The school district may request technical assistance from the Department of Education in responding to this report. Both the Department's report and the school district's response to the Department of Education are public information and will be available to the public upon request. Program Review Final Reports are also available on the Department's Internet web-site at <http://www.doe.mass.edu/pqa/review/cpr/reports/>. Department of Education Program Review procedures provide that any member of the public may request to be interviewed by telephone by a member of the Department's visiting Team. Persons wishing to be interviewed should call the Superintendent's Office at 508-763-8011, no later than November 1, 2005 to leave their name and phone number or they may call the Department of Education at 781-338-3752 (extension # for Onsite Chairperson). A member of the visiting Team will then contact each person desiring an interview within two weeks after the completion of the onsite portion of the review. If an individual does not write or speak English, is not comfortable communicating in English or requires some other accomodation, the Department will make arrangements to communicate appropriately with the individual. Superintendent Ferreira indicated that he is confident that the Department's Program Review process will be a useful and positive experience for all staff in the district and that the report will be a useful planning document for continued development of education services for all students. 10/27

Dr. Alicia Crabbe ♦ Family care - infants to seniors ♦ Dr. Jennifer Eames

Dr. Jennifer Eames grew up in Marion and attended the University of North Carolina on that school's prestigious Morehead Scholarship, the highest academic grant offered by that university. While at UNC, she was a member of four NCAA championship teams in women's soccer and became involved in team handball, eventually competing on the US national team in that sport. She then received her Doctor of Chiropractic degree with highest honors, as the top clinician in her class, from Sherman College of Chiropractic in South Carolina. She also received the school's distinguished service award, which is only given on the occasions that a graduating student has "exceptional contribution to the school and her field." She is also a published researcher, and has presented her theory on the role of the nervous system and proper joint function in maximally coordinated movement at a national chiropractic research conference. She was recently honored with Sherman College's Alumni Distinguished Service Award. Dr. Eames is certified in the Webster Technique by the International Chiropractic Pediatric Association, and is a member of that organization and the Massachusetts Chiropractic Society. Outside the office, she enjoys traveling and has lived throughout the US as well as in Australia and Norway. She is currently on the executive committee of the board of directors for US Lacrosse, is on the Athlete's Advisory Council for the US Olympic Committee, and is a nationally rated women's lacrosse official.

The fact is, nearly 1,600 units of blood are needed each day to help those in need right here in our own community. It is a challenge to collect enough blood to meet the needs of hospital patients year round.

It only takes about an hour of time — and one small pinch — to become a hero to someone in need. Giving the "Gift of Life" is one way to help those in need. Every blood donation is an opportunity to help an accident victim, a surgical patient or a young adult like Allyson, battling leukemia, to name a few.

Anyone 17 years of age or older, weighing 110 pounds or more and feeling in good health may be eligible to donate blood. Please call today to schedule an appointment.

"Despite adverse weather conditions and the long day, we played pretty well," said Myszkowski, noting that he and his partner Payne shot several rounds in the 70s, and had sixteen birdies between them. "The most rewarding part was raising a significant amount of money for the
